Have you a "latent" musical instrument in your home? Unless it's anchored there by sentiment, let a "for sale" ad in the Bonanza find a buyer for it.

If it's of exceptional value at the price, it's sure to be advertised in the Bonanza, else the merchant would be hopelessly unprogressive.

NEWLANDS DRAWS A MEDIUM HOUSE AT THE NEVADA

DOES NOT LIKE TO VOTE FOR A RIDER ATTACHED TO IM-PORTANT BILLS

A three quarters house greeted Senator Newlands and P. A. McCarran at the Nevada theater last night when a grand rally of the democracy was announced. A brass band served to supplement the drawing powers of the candidates. Frank Mannix presided. The candidate for justice of the supreme court was introduced with the remark that he needed no introduction and then the former Tonopah attorney launched into a long argument to convince his hearers that he was the logical candidate for the highest judicial office in the state.

"The chief complaint they have against me," he said, "is that I am too young but I can overcome that." He paid his respects to Bartlett, alleging the independent only came out for the recall and as an independent after he had pledged himself to abide by the wishes of the voters expressed at the primaries.

Then George Thatcher took the stage and replied to the allegations contained in two suits filed in the district court yesterday. He intimated very plainly that the only foundation for the suits was the animus displayed by George Wingfield whom he accused of hiring men to make trouble for Key Pittman at the eleventh hour of the campaign. He declared his firm represented the estate of the late Malcolm Macdonald and that Patsy Bowler had been employed as special counsel. Neither his firm nor Bowler had been asked or notified of the pendency of the suit which had been filed through the office of Henry M. Hoyt, chief counsel for the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company. The fact that Mr. Hoyt failed to warn him of the suit, he declared would furnish the basis of charges for unprofessional conduct to be filed with the State Bar association at its next meeting. So far as the other suit involving title to the Tonopah Merger was concerned, he added it was merely a stock jobbing scheme by which Wingfield cleared up a nice sum by shorting the market. He did not propose to enter into the merits of the cases which would have their hearing in due time before the district court and then the public would learn the truth of the allegations.

Senator Newlands on taking the stand read a telegram from C. H. McIntosh, chairman of the democratic state central committee, stating Key Pittman had been summoned to Sausalito, Cal., by an attack of ptomaine poisoning which had prostrated his wife and left her in a serious physical condition. Had it not been for this misfortune, the senator said, it was proposed to have a mass meeting at Goldfield this evening when they would have confronted their accusers on their own ground.

Taking up the candidacy of Senator Massey, the speaker urged his hearers to vote for a democratic candidate as the vote of Nevada might decide the political complexion of the next session of congress and leave Woodrow Wilson free to carry out his policies without any hamstringing in the senate or house of representatives. He dissected the commerce court vote, according to the circulars which have been freely issued, but admitted that he himself did not care to vote for a rider attached to an appropriation bill as it was a dangerous proceeding. In the case of the commerce court he thought the circumstances warranted an exception to the rule.

Then the band played and the crowd dispersed.

As only news of real value-giving makes good store advertising, it follows that a store must be able to print such news, in abundance, if its advertising is to accomplish anything.

A store that advertises must be a store of values—"bargains"—or the advertising would not pay.
